Tales of the real heroes

Come, hear the tales of valour
Of the bravery of soldier
Who marched to the battle field
Knowing they may not survive
Come listen to the tale of those
Who were never known
Come listen to the tales of those
Who did not fight for fame
But for freedom and their home
Come listen to the tales of those
Who sacrificed themselves
Come listen to the tales of those
Whose families kept waiting for them
Come listen to the screams
Of those who had glorified stories
Come listen to the tales of those
Who lost their dears
Unite and fight but do not let the Flame die
Burn bright in the darkness

And find the path to life
Come listen to the story of
Their life those who knew
They had to win the fight
