

EMBASSY OF INDIA

SCHOLARSHIP FOR MASTER OF SCIENCE IN FORESTRY & ALLIED PROGRAMMES FOR ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-24

The Forest Research Institute, Dehradun is offering admission to Foreign Nationals to its flagship 'Master of Science in Forestry & Allied Programmes' for the academic year 2022-24. In this regard, the Ministry of External Affairs, New Delhi has decided to award 10 scholarships to the students from South Asian countries.

The application form for admission is attached herewith. The further details can be seen at www.fridu.edu.in.

How to apply: The candidates should submit three set of applications with relevant notarized documents at Education Wing of Embassy of India in Kathmandu on or before March 31, 2022 for further processing.

Application forms may be submitted by post / courier or personally at the Education Wing of the Embassy of India, Kathmandu on or before March 31, 2022 between 09:30 hrs to 12:30 hrs along with the following documents :

- (i) Duly filled application form with one recent passport size photograph pasted on it. (3 sets)
- (ii) Notary Public attested photocopy of Date of Birth certificate issued by Municipality.
- (iii) Notary Public attested photocopy of marks sheets, certificates and degrees of examinations passed.
- (iv) Notary Public attested photocopy of citizenship (in English transcript) of self, father & mother.
- (v) Notary Public attested photocopy of character certificate issued by the university/institution last attended.
